[Selected for the Alexandria Gazette.] The Hon. Mr. Lot, of Sodom.

Now, if we let the Lord choose for us, He will choose better than we can ourselves. But Lot wanted to choose for himself. I will venture to say, when he left Abraham, if you had talked to him about going to Sodom he would have said: "Oh no! Go down to Sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I have been sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I would take my wife into Sodom? The world take my wife into Sodo would take my wife into Sodom? Do you think I would take my children down into Sodom, into that great city with all its temptations? Not I!" But he pitched his tent toward Sodom; he looked toward the city, and it was not long before his business took him there. He went down there perhaps to sell his cattle, and found a good market. Some of the leading men wanted him to go down there. He could make a great deal of money; could make it faster. When a man pitches his tent before Sodom and looks in it won't be long before he gets in there. His business took him there. "Business must be attended to, a man must attend to his business, you know." "But, then, it will be ruin to your family." "Oh, well. I am going to get money, and then get out of it. When I get enough to retire I will move back and live on the plains of Abraham. But I must attend to my business first." Many a man puts business before his family. business must be attended to, let the consequences be what they will. In the sight of the world, Lot was one of the most successful business men of all Sodom. If you had gone in there a little while before destruction came upon it, and inquired about the place and its leading men, they would have told you that Lot, the nephew of Abraham, was one of the most successful men in all Sodom. He held offices. We find him sitting at the gate, and that is a sign that he was an officer. Perhaps they made him a judge, a good, high-sounding name, "Judge Lot." It is a good title. The world honored him; Sodom honored him; they liked him very well. Then he would have reasoned in this way: "Don't you see I have got an influence by coming down He was a man of great influence in here." the sight of the world, immense influence, They would have told you that he was one of the most influential men in all Sodom. He owned, perhaps, the best corner lots, and he may have had his name on them. If they had had a Congress in those days, he would have been a very popular man to send to Congress. He would have been "The Hon. Mr. Lot, of Sodom." He was a man the world delighted to honor; for it delights to honor that kind of a man, a man of great influence. But I want to call your attention to one thing, he was there twenty years, and never got a convert. That is a man of influence! Look around and see where the worldly christians are. How many souls are they winning to Jesus Christ? Are they the men that are building up Christ's kingdom? I tell you those men are doing more to tear it down than any other class. - D. L.

Moody' in Louisville Christian Observer.

The Petersburg Election. Petersburg, Va., May 29, 1882.

To the editor of the Richmond Dispatch : Will the Whig never learn to tell the truth? The victory which the Whig claims Mahone gained here on Tuesday last was in fact the most signal defeat that gentleman ever suffered, and has completely broken his backbone here. While it is true Jarratt's (Readjuster) majority for Mayor over Archer (Democrat) was 1,059, yet the Whig fails to state that Armistead's (Readjuster) majority for Clerk over Plummer (Independent) was only 219. The Whig also fails to state that Armistead was Mahone's pet candidate, and that both he and Mahone were beaten in their own ward. Bernard (Readjuster) for Commonwealth's Attorney grother pet of Mahone the HIGHEST GRADES, and having two large wealth's Attorney, another pet of Mahhne, was also beaten in his own ward by McIlwaine (Democrat). Couch (Readjuster) beat Johnson (Democrat) by only four hundred and odd. The Democrats elected their Council ticket in Second, Third and Fourth (Mahone's ward) Wards, notwithstanding Mahone's assertion that we would not carry a ward in the city.

If this is not a defeat for Mahone, what DEMOCRAT. is it?

MISREPRISENTATION .- A well-meaning busybody, who cannot state the simple truth, but must exaggerate everything he repeats, is capable of doing a great deal of mischief. This carelessness is a sin of no small magnitude. A man's duty to God and his fellows requires him to be careful; for what else were brains and common sense given him? Of course that other class, the malignant scandal-mongers who take a findish pleasure in promoting strife, who deliberately garble men's words and twist their sentiments, is in the minority, and people have a very decided opinion regarding them. Most men misrepresent because they don't seem to think that care in speaking the JUNE DRAWING.
